Radio "Bouquet" Goes To Lombardi For Good Service

Proof that a good deed is often more than its own reward is confirmed today by Frank Lombardi.

As a member of the California State Automobile Association towing service, Lombardi was recently called out to assist a motorist bound for the country and a restful week end.

One look at the stalled car, and the wrecker driver backed up and hauled it off to the 6498 Mission street garage.

The motorist checked the week end off her calendar, returning home to gaze upon the fog of San Francisco. Without an automobile any hopes of a trip to the country were as dead as her car's motor.

Then the impossible happened. A maroon Cadillac drove up into the stranded motorist's driveway. The Cadillac was from Lombardi, who asked the astounded driver to use it while he repaired her car.

The story might have ended there. However, the driver was a radio broadcaster, Ruth Thompson by name.

On her next broadcast over KYA the air waves lady not only gave Lombardi credit for lending her his car, but also handed him a bouquet by telling one and all about his life and service.

Sat. Lions Bazaar Features Bargains Acts, Cakes, Gals

Bring a camp stool, a pocket full of change, an appreciative eye and prepare to take in the Lions Bazaar program this Saturday.

In addition to three lovelies, two of whom will play in a bathtub, the Lions have planned an all-day program at Sprouse-Reitz store, 6400 Mission. The action will start at 11 a.m. and continue through until 4 p.m.

Even those who are bored with gals and gala events will find consolation in the bazaar itself. Auto fans can pick up accessories from one-quarter to one-half the usual price. Soap lovers and women who use cosmetics can also find real values, as well as housewives with a grocery list.

Oh yes, there will also be 10 home made cakes to go up on the block.

All money from the bazaar will be used by the Lions to give some needy boy or girl a helping hand.

One Tiny Armstrong, character deluxe from San Francisco, has condescended to appear at the Lions show. He promises to give the women a flattering word and entertain the children.

Tap dancing will start off the day from 11 to 11:30 a.m. Two schools of dancing, the Ella Stone and Bunny Carroll schools, will be represented.

From 11:30 until 12:30 a Chinese show complete with dragon and costumes modeled by the three lovely gals will be in the spotlight.

Then, after a half hour rest, Hawaiian hula dancers will take over from 1 to 1:30.

Aerie No. 1848, FOE, will furnish the entertainment from 1:30 until 2:30 with a hillbilly band. This will be followed by a Greek program put on by the Helenic club from 2:30 until 3.

Tap dancing will come back from 3 until 3:30 and the final number will be Spanish dancing from 3:30 until 4.

Council Approves Johnson As City Rec'n. Coordinator

Approval of a part-time recreational coordinator was the principal business enacted at Monday night's council meeting.

The councilmen voted "Yes" on hiring Erle Johnson at $1,290 a year as recreation coordinator. This sum earlier was set aside in the budget for the proposed job.

Johnson was hired earlier this year to act as a recreation man and teacher in the Jefferson school district.

Working for the city after school on Saturdays and during the summer, Johnson will coordinate the recreation program of the grade schools with work of the city in this direction.

In this capacity he will serve as an independent part of the Daly City Recreation Department now headed by Elman Rose.

Following this appointment, a public hearing was held on the proposed 10 feet set back on Junipero Serra boulevard. No protests were made, and the hearing was closed.

A letter from the Garden Village Owners association was read requesting that Stoneson's proposed routing of Garden Gateway be ignored. The association wants to make a two-way street out of part of the approach.

The city council expressed some disagreement with this view, but voted to hold it over for further consideration. The Stoneson organization will meet with the owners association in an effort to straighten out the matter.

A letter also was read from the San Mateo county housing authority offering to meet with the council to consider slum clearance and low cost housing. The council said they would meet with the group some time in October.

The Westlake subdivision map No. 2 for 700 homes in an additional acreage was approved.

VAL BALBI NOW BLUSHING, SMOKING UNDER NEW DERBY

Betopped by a new derby today is Daly City's imaginative garbage man, Val Balbi.

Recently Balbi lost his "iron hat," and, forced to wear a nondescript straw topper, he appealed to his great public.

The public responded with gifts of 22 new and old hats. Among these is the derby Balbi now wears cocked over one eye. There were also two other derbies donated, just in case he loses the one he now wears.

Among the 22 hats was everything from the conventional "lid" to a dilapidated top hat.

"My thanks to each and every one who dug through attics, old Christmas gifts, and robbed horses so as to present me with a head warmer," Balbi said today.

Despite the assortment of chapeaux, Balbi asserted he would remain faithful to the derby. Blushing, he said there was a certain "sentimental attachment" to a derby. But then, that's another story.

Daly City Man Takes Overdose Of Sleeping Pills

Allegedly taking an overdose of sleeping pills, William Forestal, 618 Hanover street, was taken to Junipero Serra hospital early Sunday afternoon, police said.

According to officers, Forestal took from 12 to 15 sleeping tablets.

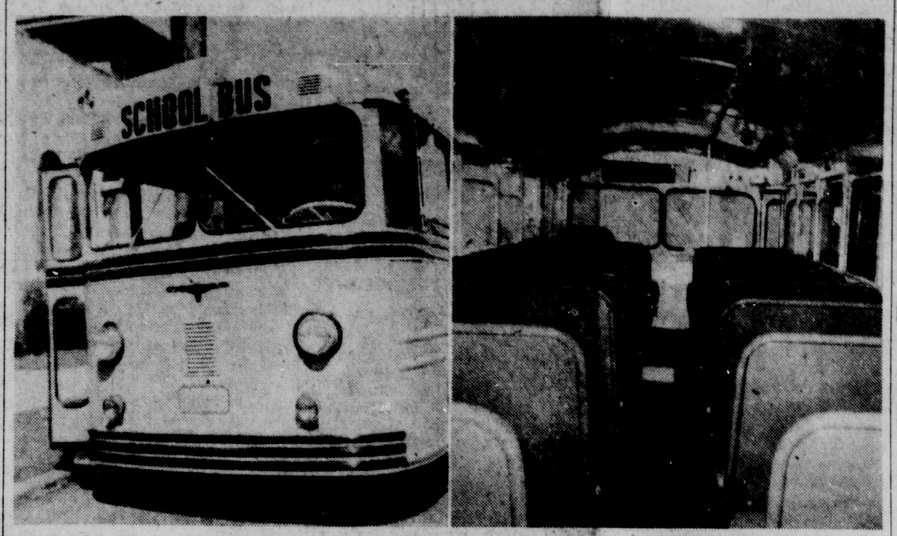
NEW JEFFERSON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL BUS



This is the new 78- passenger school bus that met some of the 1,991 grade school children on that dark Monday morning when school began. While parents may look on it (and rightly) as a step forward in better education for Daly City, there are some children who probably viewed it with the same alarm as a centenarian gazing on a hearse. To these latter "realists," the only consolation is that 30 years ago they would have had to walk to school.

New 78-Passenger School Bus Carries Children Off To School --- (And Joy?)

(An article in defense of school children)

Taking on a load of "happy" children Monday was a new 78-passenger Jefferson elementary school bus.

There is little to say about the vehicle, except it was built for comfort and children. It resembles all buses, but for a coat of yellow paint and the word "school" printed on all sides.

In another sense, the bus was an ominous sign to all kids that the summer vacation had at last ended. They may have looked on it with excitement, but it is doubtful.

Granted, a school bus is a nice thing to have running (many Daly City grownups can remember when they walked miles for an education) but it's hard to convince boys and girls of the buses intrinsic value.

After all, school is school whether it be "written" on the face of a teacher, a book, blackboard, or a bus. And no matter how new, valuable, or efficient any of these educational factors may be, for the most part they are distasteful to children.

Many commentators in radio and newspaper, as well as parents have looked longingly at the boys and girls taking up book and pencil again. They have repeated time after time the ancient platitude, "Children don't know how lucky they are to be in school. After all, they really do enjoy it."

All this may be true, but it appears the grownups have too quickly forgotten the long hours of boredom and discomfort they once experienced in the halls of learning. For school, as any grade or high pupil intuitively knows, is still work.

This is not a harangue against education. It is of course necessary.

However, in defense of the school children, let it be said that education "ain't cracked up for the bed of roses it's supposed to be."

So next time your little Johnny or Mary, or maybe teen-age son or daughter climbs into a school bus, keep your thoughts to yourself.

School is still school, and it isn't summer vacation. Give the kids a break. Let them "suffer" in peace.

No. 26 Bus Line To Be Abandoned Early Next Month

Bus service to Broadmoor Village will end next month, unless recent action by the San Francisco Public Utilities commission is reversed.

This will leave 1,040 families in Broadmoor Village without public transportation.

The No. 26 line will continue to run out to Daly City, but will stop at the Bank of America.

Original move to abandon the line was made several weeks ago, and announced as final last week by Mayor Elmer Robinson.

Unless the board of supervisors overrules the commission, the cut will go ahead as scheduled.

Railway officials said the abandonment was necessary as the No. 26 line was operating on an annual deficit of about $30,000.

Meanwhile, Mayor Paul Green was looking into the possibility of having a local group form an independent transit system for Daly City and Broadmoor Village.

Drivers Asked To Watch For School Children

Every child on the street should be regarded as a flashing "Caution" sign, Police Chief W. W. Sunderland said today.

Expressing concern about careless motorists who forget that school started this week for hundreds of Daly City children, Sunderland said every precaution was being taken to protect school children.

He asked drivers to help the police department in this endeavor.

"Motorists must think for the children and drive cautiously and watchfully, especially in school and residential areas," Sunderland said.

Parents, too, should help in the safety campaign. They must devote time and thought to training children so that they will have good traffic habits, Sunderland asserted.

"Teach your children to use the streets without reckless risks, remembering that parental example is their best lesson," Sunderland noted.

The chief also pointed out that state law forbids a motorist to continue driving when a school bus has come to a stop in front of his car, within or outside of a business or residence district. Prior to this recent amendment, stops for school buses were not required in business and residence districts.

Helping to educate both parents and children, a special radio show is put on for their benefit every Monday at 4:30 p.m. over station KVSM (1050 kc). This weekly safety program is sponsored and arranged by the San Mateo county traffic commission.

Grass Fire Almost Breaks Up Council Meeting — And Bodien

Hose hoisters almost broke up the Monday night council meeting when the fire whistle sounded at 8:25 p.m.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy dashed out of the meeting, as did several spectators.

This left the council room almost empty but for the mayor, council and A. J. Bodien, superintendent of public works. Bodien was the first to make for the door at the sound of the alarm but was brought back by Mayor Paul Green, who needed his advice on an abatement proceeding.

Bodien whipped through the necessary forms, and getting the nod from Mayor Green dashed out the door muttering something about "I never miss a fire."

But all the excitement was for nothing. The fire was only a minor grass blaze reported in the Crocker Hills behind Daly City.

It was soon under control and Bodien, Kennedy and all were back in the council meeting.

Burglars Assault D. C. Castle, Hat Box -- Get Total $96

Participating in a $75 and $21 burglary respectively in Daly City Wednesday were a toy bank, chair, two open windows and a hat box.

Henry L. Coyle, 251 Hillcrest drive, reported that some thief had removed $75 in bills from under a hat box in his bedroom between 2 and 4:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Evidently the burglar knew what he was after, as climbing through an open back window via a chair, he went directly to the hat box on a closet shelf.

Although jewelry and several other expensive items were on the dresser in the Coyle bedroom, the thief failed to take them.

Officers believe the job was "pulled off" by a juvenile.

Sometime between 8 a. m. and 3:30 p.m. that same day, another thug jimmied open a front porch window of the Edward Medina, 443 Knowles avenue, home and got away with $21.

The second burglar also seemed to know what he was doing, for after going thru two drawers in the bedroom, he turned to the front room. There, under a seat cushion, he discovered an iron castle bank.

Without further consideration, the thief broke open the castle and gingerly lifted a $20 bill and a $1 bill from its "dungeon." He left some $4 in small coins.

Evidently satisfied with his raid on the castle, the unidentified man left without taking any other item in the Medina house, police said.

Officer Escapes Injury At Fire

Patrolman Dave Hansen is certain today that Lady Luck was with him at a small fire early Monday morning.

Hansen spotted smoke coming from behind the Catherine Mory residence, 6123 Mission, at 5:40 a.m. Attempting to find the fire, Hansen went up on the roof of a small shed behind the Mory home.

Stepping gingerly along the roof, Hansen hit a loose board. The next moment he hit the ground, flat on his back.

The officer picked himself up, and as far as he could ascertain today was uninjured by the fall.

The fire? It was a smouldering blanket that Mrs. Mory had thrown out behind the house Sunday evening. Hansen quickly put out the fire, started in the blanket by a cigarette, with an extinguisher.

$350,000 THEATER FOR DALY CITY AREA

Dirt was flying near 91st and Junipero Serra today as construction started on a new $350,000 Daly City - Colma theater.

Being built by the Golden Gate State Theater company, the structure will serve all people in the Daly City and Colma areas. It is expected to be completed some time within the next 10 months.

Designed with an eye to the future, only the most modern type of fixtures will be in the stadium type theater.

It will seat from 1,100 to 1,200 persons. The seats will be arranged in a stadium form, on one floor only.

When completed the movie house will closely resemble another Golden State theater just recently built at Millbrae.

There will be plenty of parking space for those driving to a movie. In fact, plans are being made for a parking lot directly below the theater. This will be made possible as the building will be up on "legs." There will be room for approximately 100 cars.

Construction work is being done by the Cahill Brothers of San Francisco.

"YES ON BOTH" RALLY IS SCHEDULED WEDNESDAY NIGHT FOR SUPPORT OF PROPOSITIONS 1 AND 2

Supporting both Proposition 1 and 2 in the special September 27 election, civic organizations will be represented in a "Yes On Both" rally Wednesday night, September 21.

At least one member from every organization will be at city hall to vouch for a Community Center and improved parks. The rally is expected to signal an all-out drive to secure overwhelming support for both measures.

Meanwhile, Daly City's fire department and the City Employes Association were among the groups which unanimously added their endorsement to the Propositions this week.

Others pledging their support were a number of prominent club and business women in addition to Hilltop Cab Co., Ric's Place, Callan Realty and Dan Dolan.

When voters go to the polls September 27 they will be asked to approve a Community Center building, to be dedicated to the war dead. Designed by architect Mario Ciampi, the building will have an auditorium, stage, meeting halls, lobby, dressing rooms, and kitchen.

The second proposition calls for complete development of Marchbanks Park and Lincoln Park and for the construction of three new parks.

Both of these improvements will cost Daly City families less than one cent a day, or approximately $3 a year, Mayor Paul Green said.

The War Memorial building will offer everyone from three to 103 an opportunity to enjoy fuller and better recreation. It will also serve as a meeting place for Daly City clubs and organizations.

With the addition of a playground on the middle level of Marchbanks Park, and improved baseball facilities more children and grownups will be able to enjoy their leisure time.

There also will be three new parks, located in various parts of the city, so each residential group may enjoy special recreation benefits.

Reproductions of plans both for the parks and War Memorial building, together with necessary factual material will soon be distributed to every person in the Daly City area, Mayor Green said.

DCAC Did Not Back Strip Tease Show, Officials Assert

Officials of the Daly City Athletic Club today said their organization did NOT back a strip tease act at Lovchens Gardens, Colma, September 7.

Earlier the San Mateo county sheriff's office had named the Daly City group as backers of the stag smoker broken up by a police raid.

In a letter to the "Record," Allen Pettigrew, club secretary, states:

"Two weeks ago a smoker or strip tease show was to be held at a local night spot. The show was broken up before anyone had gone into their acts (three strip teasers) by the San Mateo county sheriff's office.

"Upon inquiries made by the lawmen, led by Deputy Sheriff Jack O'Brien, it was stated by one of the show promoters that it was held and endorsed by the Daly City Athletic Club of which he was an official. Proceeds he said were to go for the purchase of football equipment.

"This statement was false and untrue.

"Upon further inquiries and investigation of the sheriff's office it was established that the DCAC is completely exonerated as to having been the promoters of the show.

"It was pointed out by Deputy O'Brien that the real promoters used the name of the local club in hopes of receiving leniency and continuance of the show.

"The sheriff's office is completely satisfied that the DCAC was in no way responsible for the show."

Signed by,

Allen Pettigrew,
DCAC Secretary

Involved in three auto accidents during the week were two Daly City residents.

No one was injured in the two accidents, although two cars were badly damaged. The first wreck occurred at 4:45 p.m. Monday at Crocker and Mission. Two cars driven by Albert Pardini, 32, 711 Athens street, and Gilbert Sagases, 575 Crocker, respectively, were in the accident.

According to police, Sagases' brakes failed to hold on his car and he collided with the Pardini vehicle at the intersection. Pardini was stopped at the time, police said.

In another accident at 8:10 a.m. Tuesday two cars collided at the intersection of San Diego and Los Olivos. They were driven by Adam Javis, 49, 3140 21st street, and Bill Petersen, 6235 Mission.

The "Y" at the intersection of Junipero Serra blvd. and Alemany was the scene of another accident for two motorists. In the accident were drivers James Sturgill, 23, 2715 Cabrillo street, San Francisco and George Main, 41, 626A Shrader street, San Francisco.

Police report that Sturgill was coming west on the intersection when he collided with Main who was turning off Junipero Serra going east. Both cars were badly damaged, police reported.

The accident occurred Tuesday night at 10 o'clock, and Main claims he was blinded by Sturgill's headlights.

No citations were issued pending further investigation of the case.

Edgewood Terrace Group Approves Bond Election

Ted Fleming, president of the Edgewood Terrace Civic Association, met last Tuesday evening with his board of directors and announced that the organization was placing the forthcoming Daly City Recreation Bond issue right at the top of the list of important business before the group.

Business and personal affairs of many of the board members will be temporarily laid to one side while they actively get behind the campaign which is already getting under way via the "City Pops," association members who have been presented with placards advertising the election, and printed material describing the financing of the bond issue is also in the hands of nearly everyone in Daly City. Association membership is generally taking a very active part in the campaign.

"A stimulating campaign is a great factor in the outcome of an election," warns association president Fleming, "but we must all get out on the day of the election and vote. And what would be a better tribute to those in whose name we are dedicating the Memorial?"

There will be a special meeting of the association on Tuesday, September 20, at the City Hall, when final plans for the election and general business will be discussed. Everyone interested is urged to attend.

250 Eagles Pay Homage To Judge Sweeney Thursday

Eagles, 250 of them, gathered September 15 to pay honor to Judge Wm. J Sweeney for his 40 years of service to the community.

In addition to state president of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Charles J. Fracisco, Judge Edmund Scott was the principal speaker. Judge Scott is the past president of the Redwood City Eagles Aerie.

Along with these and other dignitaries, members of the Colma-Vista Grande Aerie 1848 FOE were gathered at Eagles Hall to wish Judge Sweeney well.

Local treasurer Otto Schramm was chairman of the committee in charge of the evening's activities. Music was furnished by the Eagles' "Haywire Band."

With something of an eye and tooth on the name "Sweeney," the chow committee chose corned beef and cabbage for the main course at the 7 p. m. dinner.

Following the dinner, new candidates were initiated into the Eagles. This terminates a membership campaign which started several months ago.

Three prizes were awarded to the members who signed up the most candidates. First prize was an Eagles gold ring; second prize, a year's dues and third prize a Parker pen and pencil set.

But, regardless of the number of candidates brought in, each member who enlisted a new man in the ranks received an electric clock.

Bank Of America Pushes Campaign Of Confidence

Hoping to restore confidence of the buying public, the Bank of America this week launched a major advertising campaign in the state.

In a personal letter directed to the executives of more than 4,000 manufacturing establishments, L. M. Gianinni pointed out that the potential market for goods is far greater than that prevailing before the war.

Nearly 59,000,000 civilians are employed, he said. Personal incomes are high and there is a record increase in savings.

Demands for goods which could not be supplied during the war are still running strong. However, the retail customer appears uncertain as to quality and future price trends.

The retailer must convince his customers that they are getting the most and best for their money.

As practical evidence of its own views, Bank of America is encouraging the public to buy now with offers of low cost credit service either through its arrangements with more than 10,000 dealers or through the bank's own branches.

Daly City Ballad Singer Bob Moore Works At OLPH School For His Voice

Between milking and mowing time on a Danbury, Connecticut farm back in the middle 1920's, Bob Moore, ballad singer and Our Lady of Perpetual Help school janitor, took up a guitar.

In the warm afternoon sunshine the young boy's fingers began to pick at the taut wires. There wasn't much of a melody, but just enough to serve as an accompaniment to a soulful song concerning one "Barbry Allen."

That was the beginning of a voice and guitar which was to carry tall, thin gregarious Moore out of Connecticut through the Catskill mountains, down the Mississippi to Jackson and Mobile, over the warm streets of Atlanta and New Orleans, up through St. Louis to the hog butcher city of the world, west through the wheat fields to the roaring Columbia, and finally south again to the Golden Gate.

"All that time I was singing," Moore recalls. "But I was working hard too, a little job on a farm, 'pearl diving,' cutting wood, anything to keep me moving."

Although he made enough to eat, Moore rarely had fare for transportation. So, following the lead of thousands who were on the road in 1934, the 16-year-old modern-day minstrel took to the rails.

"In boxcars I learned more about America than all the history books could teach. And it was sitting there at night with my guitar and the knights of the open road that I picked up a lot of my ballads."

Once in a hobo camp, or resting on the rods of a freight car with anyone but himself, Moore managed soon to discover whether or not any of his companions knew a song. If they did he'd "pester the boys" until they gave him the words.

From boxcar to boxcar, from bum to bum, Moore gradually began to accumulate a stock of ballads that today is well over the 350 mark.

"Know most of them by heart, too. They're not hard to remember. I just take up my guitar, hit the right chord and all the words are there, clear and beautiful."

But the songs always didn't sound good to some people, especially Moore's childhood friends and southern sheriffs. The part-time janitor recalls that his greatest trouble in Connecticut was to overcome a feeling of shame because he played ballads.

The youngsters used to call his melodies "sob songs," and generally made Moore miserable. Then one day an Italian farm laborer came to Danbury, a man from whom Moore later was to learn much about playing a guitar.

"That Italian got me aside one day, and simply said 'I'd rather hear your songs than many of the famous Italian melodies.' That was enough for me. I never felt ashamed again."

Then there were the times in jail.

"Southerners like ballads, in fact most of them originate in the bible belt country. So, sitting in my cell I'd pick out the songs until the sheriff got tired of listening. He'd usually give me a friendly shove, and I'd be out on the road again."

From the Dalles, Oregon, where Moore spent happy months fishing and helping to operate a ferry boat, he came to San Francisco. But his travels were far from ended. In 1936 he joined the army.

During his 10 years in khaki, Moore went from one corner of the United States to the other, and north to Alaska. Everywhere he met men with songs in their hearts.

It was also while in the army that Moore literally bumped into master ballad singer Burl Ives.

"Burl was a scene changer in an army show. Met him back stage one day. We're pretty good friends."

While Moore thinks the Ives method of ballad singing is good he also has a fond place in his heart for Richard Dyer Bennet.

After the war, Moore came to Daly City where in 1946 he bought a home at 29 Bismark street, Colma.

Today the 31-year-old songster is still collecting ballads, and will continue to do so until "they play the funeral march." He is also doing well commercially, and gives performances both in radio and at Ranch Portola.

"Lots of people wonder why I'm working as a janitor. I could make more money just singing, but you got to feel good; good in heart and body to really sing. I have to do manual work to keep in trim."

Although he's been singing and playing ballads for almost 26 years, Moore finds it difficult to give a clear definition of the words and music that are ballads.

"I can tell if it's genuine just by hearing the first few words. A ballad has happy words and sad music or vice versa. It's usually at least 50 years old."

But the secret of the song is in men like Moore. Men who find it difficult to become articulate with the aid of Webster, yet who can touch the heart with the simple, poignant words and music of truth and beauty, good and evil, tears and laughter.

For when the last orator's words are dust, the final king toppled, there will be the minstrel to sing the fate of men in words and music down through the ages. Who knows, it may be Moore.

Ambulance Change In North County Is Under Study

Calling for improved ambulance service in northern San Mateo county, local officials will meet Friday, September 16, to discuss the problem.

The representatives from Daly City, South San Francisco, San Bruno, Colma, Brisbane and Bayshore City will meet with Chairman Henry D. Edmonds.

Basis for the meeting will be an exhaustive report submitted earlier this week to Dr. Harold D. Chope, county health director.

Crux of the report calls for county control of emergency ambulance calls and 24 hour a day central dispatching office. The ambulance would operate as part of the sheriff's radio call system.

Inadequate ambulance service, the report asserts, has long been with the northern part of the county. This poor service has often meant critical delays in arrival of help at highway accident scenes.

Daly City has one ambulance, but this has often proven inadequate in calls any distance from the community.

Under the proposed new system, all emergency calls would be rotated through the sheriff's office and a central dispatch system would be inaugurated.

OLPH Carnival Features Cake, Candy Booths

Cake lovers as well as those who enjoy a circus are bound to enjoy Our Lady of Perpetual Help Circus Carnival October 21 thru 23.

The carnival, to be held in the OLPH Parish hall, 80 Wellington avenue, promises to be the best of any year. At least this is the prediction of the man who should know, Father William Stewart, who is in charge of the event.

All varieties of delicious home made cakes will be offered to the public in the cake booths. This is always a big attraction at the Carnival, and Father Stewart noted "it will be even bigger and better" this year.

Mrs. Valetta Ennis, Mrs. Lee Miller, Mrs. Susan Schroeder and Mrs. Veronica Whalen will be in charge of the cakes.

In addition to other booths already announced there will also be spots where the carnival goer may purchase groceries and candy.

Mrs. Sophie Klingler, Mrs. Elsie Thomsen, Mrs. Hattie Watt and Mrs. Marie Marinakes will stand ready in the grocery booth. Mrs. Betty Brush will be handing out the candy.

All of the booths will follow the general theme of the carnival and be styled after side shows in a circus.

Money from the event is used to further the educational activities of the OLPH school.

Burglars Get $115 In Sprouse-Reitz Store Robbery

Daly City police today are hunting the unidentified thieves who broke into the Sprouse-Reitz store, 6400 Mission, last Thursday night and got away with $115.

The thugs lifted the money, in bills and small change, from two cash registers in the front part of the store. Police said both registers were locked.

Breaking into the concern by forcing a side entrance door with an iron bar, the burglars first went to the desk of Manager Sterling Brady. Here they ransacked the drawers, but took nothing.

Brady told officers that the thieves left six store endorsed checks on his desk. He did not disclose the amount of the checks.

The burglary was discovered Friday morning by Joseph Bishop, assistant manager, when he opened up the store.

This is the second large theft in three weeks. August 30 King's Market lost $600 when thugs cracked open a basement safe.

2,840 Students Enroll In Daly City Schools Monday

When the last sound of the school bell had died Monday, some 1,991 boys and girls were in Jefferson elementary schools and 850 youths in Jefferson High.

The enrollment, as expected, in the grade schools was well up over last year. In September 1948, first day enrollment was 1,717. This year there are 274 more faces in school.

There was no surprise at the high school either. Here an enrollment not much larger, in fact almost the same as last year, was predicted. The crystal ball was correct, with 850 young men and women in classes.

Although facilities are adequate at the Jefferson high school this is far from the case in the elementary grades.

As expected three schools, Crocker, Woodrow Wilson and Jefferson went on a swing shift class schedule.

Major portion of the grade school increase occurred in the Jefferson school at Colma which serves the Broadmoor area. A congestion in the fourth grade (66 enrolled) of the Jefferson annex and the first grade (59 enrolled) at the Broadmoor Community center made it necessary to place the two grades on double session.

There is some hope for an early solution to this problem. When the new Garden Village school is completed it will relieve the load at Broadmoor and Jefferson.

$45,000 Garage, Ceramic Shop, For D. C. Area

Largest building permit this week issued by the city went to one A. L. Tamossi, 408 Sweeney street, who plans to put up a $45,000 garage.

The concrete building will go up near Citrus and Mission, and when completed will be used as a garage. Further details on the proposed structure could not be learned at this time.

Another building, a ceramic shop, is due to be built near Junipero Serra boulevard and North Park avenue. The one-story, wood frame building is being constructed by Kenneth P. Outland, 1814 38th avenue, San Francisco. No price was given for the structure.

Two other permits were issued to T. J. Rusting, 83 Risel avenue, and an O. F. Armstrong, 322 Westlake avenue, for a $350 dwelling improvement, and $1,000 repairs on a home, respectively.

Red Cross Helps Navajo Children

Supplying clothes to the Navajo Indian children is the current purpose of a San Mateo Red Cross drive.

There are 25,000 children desperately in need of winter outfits, Mrs. Wencel M. Bartosch, production chairman, said.

Here is a made-to-order project for those who will help. The Red Cross furnished all materials for clothes, and the volunteers put it in shape for use.

All those living in Daly City who are willing to help are requested to contact Mrs. Ann Ingersoll, 439 Crocker avenue, or Mrs. Margaret Brown, 160 Washington street, in Colma.

Operated as a community service of the church, the school will be conducted for these young people from 9 to 12 Monday through Friday, inclusive.

FUTILITY
A kitten has all the time in the world. She might as well waste some of it trying to do the impossible.
But man doesn't have all the time in the world. He has a brief span of years in which to achieve his life's aims. Man can't afford to waste some of those years—and strength and vitality as well—trying to accomplish what is impracticable.
One of religion's great services to mankind has been its revelation of worthwhile and attainable goals in life. Christianity has shown man the great potential in right living—and the tragic futility of wrong living.
Attend and support the Church. It can help you choose the best goals . . . and attain them.
HOLY BIBLE
THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

To wash clothes fresh and clean takes plenty of hot water. In fact, it takes 20 gallons of hot water to wash and properly rinse a single tub full of family wash. That is why size is important in a water heater. There must be a reserve supply of hot water for kitchen and bathrooms too. And hot water costs less per gallon when you use a full-size water heater. You'll be happier and save money with a water heater that fits your needs for hot water.

$2,500 Is Com'unity Chest Quota; Drive Starts October 1

Quota of the Daly City Community Chest campaign this year is $2,500, General Chairman Paul Green said today.

The campaign, which opens throughout the state October 1, is an effort to raise money for civic organizations. The majority of such money donated to the chest is returned to the community in relief and youth work.

In order to meet the quota, women or men block workers are needed, Green said. These block workers will have the job of contacting their neighbors for donations to the chest.

Those who are willing to give the chest a helping hand by contributing their time and energy are asked to contact Green at City Hall, or to call Mrs. Charles Keith at JUniper 4-3576.

$3000 Fire Guts Stumble Inn Flat; Two Firemen Hurt

Nothing but charred wood remains today of two rooms in a flat above the Stumble Inn, Hillside boulevard and Castle street, following a Friday fire in which two firemen were injured.

The $3,000 fire was started by an overloaded fuse box outside the front bedroom, Fire Chief Louis P. Nannini of the Colma department said. When blaze busters arrived at 3 p.m. flames were already shooting out of the roof and windows.

Henry Weisner, 33, 34 Parkview road had six stitches taken in his wrist at Junipero Serra hospital, after he was slashed by flying glass.

Also cut by glass, Ray Giusti, 191 Moltke street, was given first aid by the Colma department at the scene of the fire.

Members of both the Daly City and Colma fire departments fought the blaze for 15 minutes before it was brought under control. In the battle they donned smoke masks, as they smashed rear and front doors and windows to get at the roaring fire.

Before the blaze was completely put out, hose hoisters spent an hour and one-half with their hoses turned on the living room and bedroom.

Occupants of the flat, Alice Tognoli and brother Victor, were uninjured. However Miss Tognoli said her wardrobe was ruined by the fire and water.

Hasty work by the ladder laddies in putting tarpaulins over the bar fixtures in the inn below, saved the Stumble Inn from any serious damage.

Hypnosis Fine Research Tool, Says Dr. Leuba

Take hypnosis off the stage, remove the Svengalian taint, and you have an excellent tool, according to Dr. Clarence Leuba, visiting professor of psychology at the University of California at Los Angeles this summer.

Dr. Leuba has performed numerous psychological experiments involving the use of hypnosis. He says that hypnosis has had a difficult time establishing itself in the scientific world because it has too long been associated with the mysterious, the sensational, and often the charlatan. Much of the little scientific recognition it has achieved has been in the field of psychotherapy.

"These unfortunate associations with hypnosis tend to restrain the experimentalist from exploring its unique possibilities as a method of furthering psychological research," he points out. "Actually, hpnosis may well be the most effective method researchers have for focusing attention exclusively on an experimental variable, for eliminating distraction and for dispelling irrelevant attitudes."

Dr. Leuba has found it very effective in experiments involving conditioned sensory response experiments and in creating various moods and attitudes for experimental purposes.

Armed Robber Gets $28 Cash At Mission Cannery

Police today are hunting a pistol toting robber who held up a clerk at Mission Cannery Sales Company, 6001 Mission street, at 9:02 p.m. Saturday and got away with $28 in cash.

The clerk, Bill Study, told officers that the thug entered the store just at closing time. He ordered two packages of cigarettes.

When Study turned to get the cigarettes on a shelf behind him the robber barked:

"Hands up! This is a holdup!"

Study put up his hands and turned around to face the thief and a short silver barelled revolver.

The thug ordered him to lower his hands and scoop the $28 out of the store's cash register. Study put the money on the counter, and the unidentified robber put it in his pocket along with the two packages of cigarettes.

Pushing Study back in the rear of the store, the armed man told him to "stay right here." He then ran out the front door and turned north on Mission.

WHY THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD STRIKE?

Over twenty years ago, the Congress of the United States passed the Railway Labor Act. It was hailed by union leaders as a model for the settlement of labor disputes.

THE LEADERS of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Order of Railway Conductors, and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on the Missouri Pacific Railroad have refused to avail themselves of the peaceful means provided by this Act for settling their disputes. They insist that they be the sole umpire of their own disputes over the meaning of contracts.

There is no Need for Strikes

With all of the available methods for the interpretation of contracts, there is no need for a strike or even a threat of a strike, but the leaders of these railroad unions have ignored the ordinary procedures established by law and insist upon imposing their own interpretations of their contracts by means of a strike.

The wheels have stopped rolling on the Missouri Pacific. They may stop rolling on other railroads at any time. Recently the Wabash Railroad was forced to discontinue operation for several days under similar circumstances.

What are These Strikes About?

These strikes and strike threats are not about wage rates or hours. They result from disputes over the meaning of existing contracts. They cover claims for a full day's pay for less than a day's work, or for payments for services performed by others who were not paid for the work done.

President Truman's Board Condemns Strike

There is an established legal method for handling disputes involving existing written contracts—just as there is such a method of settling any contract dispute which you may have in your daily life.

The President of the United States appointed a Fact Finding Board to investigate and adjust the Missouri Pacific dispute. This Board reported, in part, as follows:

> "... it is with a deep sense of regret that we are obliged to report the failure of our mission. It seems inconceivable to us that a coercive strike should occur on one of the nation's major transportation systems, with all of the losses and hardships that would follow, in view of the fact that the Railway Labor Act provides an orderly, efficient and complete remedy for the fair and just settlement of the matters in dispute. Grievances of the character here under discussion are so numerous and of such frequent occurrence on all railroads that the general adoption of the policy pursued by the organizations in this case would soon result in the complete nullification of the Railway Labor Act. ..."

Obviously the railroads cannot be run efficiently or economically if the leaders of the unions ignore agreements or laws.

Provisions of the Law which are Disregarded

There are five ways under the Railway Labor Act to settle disputes over the meaning of contracts:

1—Decision by National Railroad Adjustment Board.
2—Decision by System Adjustment Board for the specific railroad.
3—Decision by arbitration.
4—Decision by neutral referee.
5—Decision by courts.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad has been and is entirely willing to have these disputes settled in accordance with the requirements of the Railway Labor Act. Regardless of this fact, the union leaders have shut down that railroad.

Innocent Bystanders Suffer Losses and Hardships

There are about 5,000 engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen on the Missouri Pacific. They are known as "operating" employes, and are the most highly paid of all employes on the nation's railroads, but their strike action has resulted in the loss of work to 22,500 other employes of the Missouri Pacific. In addition, they have imposed great inconvenience and hardship upon the public and the communities served by that railroad.

The Railway Labor Act was designed to protect the public against just such interruptions of commerce.

If these men will not comply with the provisions of the law for the settlement of such disputes, then all thinking Americans must face the question, "What is the next step?"

EASTERN SOUTHEASTERN WESTERN RAILROADS

JEFF INDIANS HAVE STRONG BACKFIELD··· BUT ENDS ARE WEAK

With a fast moving backfield, Jefferson High Indians will probably keep their scalps in position during the season. But look out for that forelock—the team has weak ends.

Coach Glenn South pins his hopes on left halfback Don Lunghi, who came up on the top of the Peninsula Athletic League last year, and his only other two first stringers from last year, center Leo Bricker and left tackle Frank Druhan.

Only trouble is, the Indians are going to have trouble with the ends.

"Although we've got some good boys on both the right and left ends, I'm not sure whether they're going to be able to hatchet the other teams," South noted.

There may be some hope in transfers from Balboa high. Among these are right end Jack Wilson and left end Bill Chambers. South says both of these boys have looked good in spring practice and may be able to spark the team.

Another not too strong point is the line. With most of the lads weighing in at around 160 to 170 pounds, the Indians may have trouble knocking at the gates of a heavier team.

A beautiful exception to the aforesaid is one Pat McCool, a 215-pound tackle transfer from Los Angeles. How much McCool is going to be able to do is still in doubt, but he will certainly help.

Another lad who South says looks good in practice is Frank Maffei, a fast, tricky center.

Along with Lunghi, Bob Gallagher, Max Kleim, and a San Francisco transfer, Bill Tienken, look good in the job of carrying the brunt of the running attack. And it is this attack that South is hoping will overcome the weak ends and rather light line.

These are some of the braves South plans to use this season to at least hold his own in the Peninsula league.

Whether or not the Indians come out on top will depend pretty much on the line's ability to hold and the fast moving and passing of the halfbacks. From here it appears doubtful if the lads can whip their way to the top, but there is no reason why they shouldn't be among the three leaders.

"One thing is certain, we can't do as badly as last year," South observed. "Then we dropped seven out of nine games."

It might be noted, however, that among all the Peninsula schools Jefferson can only draw on 850 students. The other highs can count on enrollments well over the 1,000 mark.

This is not by way of an excuse. The Indians need no excuses. This year, South is confident, they are going out to win.

Just how well this prediction comes out may be partially seen September 30 when the Indians have a practice game with Mountain View at Mountain View.

Following the evening game, at 8 p.m., they will stage another practice game with Menlo October 7. Then, on Friday, October 14, the season begins.

Only three of the seven games this year will be played at home. The complete schedule is as follows:

October 14, 3 p.m., Jefferson at Lincoln.

*October 21, 2:45 p.m., Sequoia at Jefferson.

*October 28, 2:45 p.m., San Jose at Jefferson.

November 4, 2:45 p.m., Jefferson at San Mateo.

*November 11, 2:45 p.m., Burlingame at Jefferson.

November 18, 2:45 p.m., Jefferson at Palo Alto.

November 24, 11 a.m., Jefferson at South San Francisco.

*Home games

Every game but the last, on Thanksgiving day, will be played on Friday.

As yet Coach South has not picked the lads for first and second string. When this is done, their names will be published.

Colma Club Loses To Am Vets; Gets Don Mossi Sunday

Still nervously gripping their gloves and bats today are the semi professional lads of the Am Vets who came close to loosing "face" Sunday when the Colma Senior club fought it out at Palo Alto.

The final score was 2 to 0 in favor of the Am Vets. And if it hadn't been for a few errors, the Am Vets never would have scored.

Colma pitcher Ottenelo held the Vets down to four hits. He even went further and struck out catcher manager Marshall twice. Marshall, by the way, recently played in the big leagues.

It was this same Marshall who at first wanted the game called off as he didn't want "to play a bunch of kids."

The Am Vets are crying for a replay, but Joseph Sarto, backer of the Colma lads, says he won't take the match. Not that the Colma boys fear the Palo Alto team, it's only that Sarto can't see giving them another chance after they tried to call off the Sunday game.

This is only the fourth game the Colma team has lost during the year. They have taken 10 games.

Sunday the Colma team goes to Palo Alto again, this time to tackle the Regal Pale team at 1:30 sharp at the Palo Alto Veterans hospital field.

As an added attraction to the Sunday game, Don Mossi will be playing with the Colma team.

Mossi, as most remember, played with the Colma lads for several years until he was moved up to the pitcher's mound for the Bakersfield Indians.

During the season Mossi pitched such good ball that many look for him to join an eastern team next year. Due to Mossi's pitching, and eight other players, the Indians took the coast pennant this year.

Sarto says Mossi will probably play first base or field during the Sunday game He won't be pitching until he's rested up from his hard spring and summer schedule, Sarto said.

Mossi is expected to be playing with the Colma team until March, or until such time as he joins up with one of the pro clubs.

Mustangs Lose To Sunset; Will Play Rams Sunday

By Allen Pettigrew

Walking around in complete confusion today are the Daly City Mustangs who dropped last Sunday's game to the Sunset A.C. by the one-sided score of 32 to 0.

Witnessed by a crowd of 600 fans, the game was a sure Sunset victory from the first. Although the Mustang line was the more aggressive, they were unable to stop the Sunset lad Frank Van Houtte.

Van Houtte passed, ran, and kicked with such coolness that it appeared as though he were toying with the local team. He enjoyed a field day by accounting for 20 of his team's 32 points.

Two of Van Houtte's passes were good for touchdowns. One touchdown he scored when, apparently trapped in attempting to find a pass receiver, he cut and twisted through the Mustang defense to the goal line.

Try for points by Van Houtte was almost perfect. He put the ball over the bar two out of three times.

Confused by Van Houtte and the Sunset offensive, the Mustangs were never able to roll either defensively or on the offense.

Principal reason for the defeat was failure of the Mustangs to follow a defensive pattern planned out by Coach Ferrando.

This Sunday the Daly City team will have a chance to redeem itself when they meet the Oakland Rams. The game will be played on the Emeryville baseball field, with the kickoff set for 2 p.m.

By the by, it was these same Oakland Rams who took the powerful Alameda Naval Air station eleven two weeks ago by 3 to 0.

Here is the present standing of the various teams in the Western Football Association league:

	W	L	T	Pts
SSF Windbreakers	3	0	0	43
Sunset of SF	2	0	0	53
Oakland Devils	1	0	1	32
Daly City Mustangs	2	1	0	23
Woodland Legion	1	1	0	7
Oakland Rams	1	1	0	45
San Leandro Redskins	1	1	0	31
Hayward Raiders	1	2	0	14
Piedmont Buds	0	1	0	0
Modesto Falcons	0	1	0	0
St. Mary's AC	0	2	1	6
Sacramento Hawks	0	2	0	0

This week end the following games are scheduled:

San Leandro vs. Oakland Devils

D. C. Mustangs vs. Oakland Rams

Piedmont vs. Modesto

Hayward vs. Woodland

Sacramento vs. St. Mary's AC

Rabbits of all species are now legal hunting targets in six southern California counties, the state Division of Fish and Game reported today.

Until December 31, brush, cottontail, and jack rabbits may be taken in San Bernardino, Riverside, Imperial, Orange, San Diego, and Los Angeles counties.

Open hunting season begins November 18, ending December 31 for counties outside of the aforesaid.

Shooting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset, except during the open pheasant hunting season, November 18 to November 27, when hunting is permitted for all species of upland game only between 8 a.m. and sunset.

Bag and possession limit is eight brush or cottontails per day, with no limit on jack rabbits.

Broncos May Buck Bears In Even Saturday Game

A harried Golden Bear opens the 1949 California football season Saturday against the highly touted Santa Clara Bronco eleven.

Game time is 2:30 p.m. at Memorial stadium. Some 55,000 people are expected to view the game in which the Bears will be the underdogs.

Incidents that have brought last season's conference co-champ to its present state read like something out of a soap opera. Graduation losses were expected and Jackie Jensen's departure not too surprising.

But then center Doug Duncan decided not to return, end John Cunningham was declared ineligible, his replacement, Norm Pressley, injured his knee, star halfback Jack Swaner banged up his knee, and half Billy Main became entangled in eligibility problems.

"Pappy" Waldorf's forces are depleted, but certainly not routed. Still remaining is a major part of last year's line, headed by guard Rod Franz and tackle Jim Turner. And there are still a number of good backs around.

In comparison with last year, this season's eleven falls down. Injuries, ineligibilities and all, the 1949 Bears appear to be practically on a par with most teams around.

Len Casanova's Broncos, however, may be more than just any team. End Ellery Williams and guard Vern Sterling have been tabbed as probable top performers on the coast. Their running mates, en Jerry Hennessy and guard Jim Dowling, shouldn't be far behind in effectiveness.

In a nutshell, the Broncos seem to be improved over last year, the Bears just the opposite, which should cancel out to just about an even ball game.

SUNDAY GAMES

10:30 a.m. — Excelsior Merchants vs. Lenis, Marchbanks Park.

12:30 p.m. — Junipero Serra Merchants vs. Sills Service, Marchbanks Park.

1:30 p.m. — Senior Colma Boys Club vs. Regal Pale, Palo Alto Vets Hospital field.

2p.m. — Daly City Mustangs vs. Oakland Rams, Emeryville Baseball Field, Emeryville.

2:30 p.m. — Daly City Billiards (formerly Daly City Blues) vs. San Francisco Ayoobs, Marchbanks Park.

School Board Considers Snappy Band Uniforms For Jeff High Players

Time was when members of the Jefferson High school band were dressed like third class tuba players from the Siberian salt mines.

This year all will be different, promises Stanford Hannah, school superintendent. Bids have been received for new uniforms, and the snappy dress soon will adorn every player from the tuba to the flute.

Uniforms from four companies are now being considered by the school board. They will cost about $50 each, and approximately 36 will be ordered.

The uniforms will be in two pieces, pants and coat, in blue and gold.

Murchinson Wins, Defeated Only By "Record" Error

Defeated by print, but certainly not by Bert Nottingham in the Daly City Recreation Department boxing tournament August 31 was Bob Murchinson.

The 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Murchinson, 680 Hanover, was reported as having been defeated in a recent issue of the "Record."

This was absolutely wrong. The error arose out of a misunderstanding between the recreation department and the "Record."

In fact, 140-pound Murchinson scored a techinical knockout in three rounds.

The "Record" apologizes both to Murchinson and to Nottingham for this error.

St. Mary's Plays Oregon At Night In Kezar Stadium

Night will be turned into day tomorrow night, September 16, at Kezar stadium when the first night football game in San Francisco sports history is played.

A colorful pageant starting at 7:30 p.m. will include color guards from numerous civic and fraternal organizations.

The kickoff starting the game between St. Mary's College and the University of Oregon comes at 8:15 p.m.

Constructed by the park commission at a cost of $135,000 sport floodlights will illuminate the field. The lights are on six steel towers that reach 139 feet above the level of the playing field.

Kezar stadium with a seating capacity of 60,000 will have few night games this year, according to Harvey E. Teller, park commissioner president, but will probably average from 8 to 10 night games annually after this season.

Annual Football Festival Comes To Berkeley

Collegiate football will open with a mighty bang tomorrow, September 16, with Berkeley's fourth annual football festival.

Major universities and colleges throughout the west coast will participate in the celebration which will be highlighted Friday evening at 8 p.m. with a gigantic parade. The march will be held on the eve of the opening game between UC's Bears and Santa Clara's Broncos.

Referred to as the West's greatest night spectacle, the parade will feature nine divisions and more than 85 units of colorful floats, civic and military dignitaries, bands, mounted units and motion picture stars.

Leading the parade will be the mayors and other officials of cities throughout the Bay area and such noted players as Frankie Albert and Red Ryder.

Reigning over the parade will be "King Football," and his coed "Queen."

The parade will commence at University avenue and California street, marching eastward on University. Bleacher seats along the line of march are now on sale at Festival headquarters.

Answering promptly—giving others a full minute to answer her call—are first on Janie's list of aids to service.

How Janie helps herself to better service

1. "Allowing a little time between calls," says Janie, "gives others a chance to call me . . . and it's a nice party-line courtesy, too." So when she's getting the gang together for a picnic, or for any reason needs to make calls in a row, she waits several minutes between each one. "It's simple to make friends with others on our line. I just use the telephone the way I like them to."

2. Looking up numbers, Janie knows, is really important. "So easy to get them mixed up," she explains. "Why, I was just sure Babs' number was 8145 . . . but when I called her I got the drug store. Turned out her number was 8415. So unless I'm really sure of a number, I'm going to look it up in the telephone book." That's a good tip for all of us—teen-agers and grown-ups.

3. Getting the most from the telephone—and helping others get better service—depends in part on every telephone user. Facilities have doubled in the West in ten years. Your telephone is today one of your most valuable servants . . . saving time, saving steps. And it still does its job for just a few pennies a call.

Ice Rink Work To Start In Two Months

Work on the ice skating rink at San Carlos should start in two months, William W. Gill, president of Peninsula Iceland, Inc., recently told stockholders.

Only thing holding the company back is a lack of funds, Gill said.

"If our original group of stockholders would make a concerted effort to secure the balance of the funds we could have our rink in operation during the late winter and early spring months," Gill declared.

Goal of the volunteer workers is $240,000 for the erection of the rink.

Donations To Polio Fight May Now Be Mailed Via S.F. Postmaster

Cooperating with the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, the post office department this week came out with a new type of accepted address form.

The public is invited to send in contributions to fight polio by mailing their dimes and dollars in an envelope simply addressed, "Polio, c/o Postmaster, San Francisco."

All donations from the people of the state will be directed to their local postmasters who in turn will forward them to Acting Postmaster John F. Fixa for delivery to the polio campaign.

DOG SHOW AND PARADE SLATED THIS SUNDAY AT MARCHBANKS PARK

Getting National Dog Week, September 18-25, off with a loud "bark," a dog show and parade will be held in Daly City this Sunday.

Sponsored by Daly City's Be Kind To Animal Club, the show will be held September 18 at Marchbanks park. It begins at 1 p.m.

This is not an ordinary dog show, or are the entries expected to be out of the ordinary.

While pedigree dogs won't be ruled out, they will be outnumbered in the big parade and show. All boys and girls between 6 and 18 years are invited to enter their dogs, regardless of breed or family.

In case the dog is bashful, it won't be necessary for the entrant to take part in the judging. Bring him or her, or whatever it is, to the parade.

For those who do enter the show, there promise to be 20 prizes. The prizes, however, won't go so much to the winning pooch as to the owner.

Judges in the show will include such dignitaries and barker authorities, as Mayor Paul Green, Police Chief W. W. Sunderland, Recreation Director Elman Rose.

Those who wish to enter in the show are asked to call JUniper 5-0867 or JUniper 7-7519. But if you have a pay phone and not a nickel, it will be alright to join the parade without making a telephone call.

Prizes in the big show are being donated by the following Daly City concerns: W. J. Sweeney & Sons, Twin Cleaners, Crocker Cleaners, Stevens Motors, Westlake Furniture, Bruce & Griffin 5 & 10 Store, Shannon Hardware, McGraw Bros. Pharmacy, Williams Candy, Mid City Market and Gallo Furniture.

Joe Wilson Likes Idaho, Fails To Appear In Court

A bench warrant was out today for Joseph Wilson, who was to have appeared in court last Thursday but instead was traveling through Idaho.

The 36-year-old San Mateo commercial artist was charged with illegal prowling arising out of snatching his 15-month-old daughter from her mother August 19.

He pleaded not guilty to the charge August 26, and was released on $50 bail. The bail was put up by his San Mateo lawyers.

Judge William Sweeney continued the case 30 days. However, according to Wilson's attorneys no action can be taken against the man while he remains in Idaho.

Mrs. Ruby Wilson told Judge Sweeney that her husband still had possession of their daughter Donna.

County Parade Set For October 1

This year's San Mateo county parade will be held October 1, starting at Burlingame and ending in San Mateo.

More than 100 entries have been received to date for the parade to commemorate the California centennial. It appears this march may eclipse any other ever seen in the county, Norman Corlett, chairman, said.

Time of the parade and line of march will be announced later.

Among the many entries are floats from Marin, San Francisco, Alameda, Merced, and others from distant points.

Prizes for the best floats will total $2,000. Theme of the majority of floats will be based on California history. Many bands are also to be included in the line of march.

Two Sentenced Over Cafe Fight

Winding up the apprehension of parties who allegedly beat up two men in a Daly City cafe August 30, a man and a woman were sentenced in police court Thursday.

The man was Daniel Tracy, 19, 601 Sunnbrace boulevard, San Mateo, who pleaded guilty to vagrancy. Judge W. J. Sweeney gave him a 10-day suspended sentence and put him on one year probation.

Earlier Tracy had entered a plea of innocent to a charge of assault and battery. The court then changed the charge to vagrancy.

Sally Brown, 21, 3850 23rd street, San Francisco, pleaded guilty to vagrancy and was given a 30-day suspended jail sentence. She also was put on one year probation.

The young girl was with Tracy and three others, who previously had been sentenced, August 30, when the fight occurred. Allegedly one of the young men started a fight in the Hill King Stop restaurant, 6266 Mission.

Before the fight was over two men were in the hospital, and Miss Brown and four men were in jail.

Drunkenness Cost Four Total Of $210

Police court last Thursday was a place of activity as four persons pleaded guilty to various offenses.

Walter J. Gaboni, 141 Cypress avenue, Millbrae, pleaded guilty to being drunk in and around his car. He was fined $50.

Ray Boyd Alexander, 334 Hillside boulevard, pleaded guilty to the same charge and was given the same $50 fine.

Charged with being drunk in and around his car was John A. Kantor, 6446 Mission. He received a stiffer fine after pleading guilty to the charge. Kantor was fined $100.

Ella Weil, 274 Irvington, was put on six months probation after she pleaded guilty to drunkenness. She was also fined $10.

Leary will appear before Daly City Police Judge W. J. Sweeney tomorrow, September 16, to answer the charge. He is now out on $125 bail.

Officers said they picked up Leary at 6:35 p.m. Friday. He was reportedly driving down Mission near Market in a "very erratic fashion."

PITTED WINDSHIELD

An automobile windshield that has been pitted by being struck by particles of gravel or other sharp objects will deflect light rays and cause excessive glare from approaching headlights, warns the California State Automobile Association. Cost of replacing a defective windshield is not excessive, and conditions can be improved by replacing the glass at least on the driver's side.

PTA On The Air Discusses Child, Parent Problems

Problems between parents, children and the school will be discussed on a series of radio broadcasts by the 17th District California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

First of these broadcasts comes at 11:15 a.m. September 20 over station KSMO (1550 kc). The series will begin Tuesday with a program describing the functions and achievements of the PTA.

The second program will also be on the PTA, and then for the following 14 Tuesdays, also at 11:15 a.m., a transcription series will be presented by the 17th District, titled "The Inquiring Parent." They feature Dr. Luther Woodward, discussing various topics of child guidance with the parents and children concerned.

Since the programs are designed to provoke thoughts for continued discussion, 17th district has assisted in the organization of numerous study groups which will listen to the broadcasts together and continue their consideration of the topics in forum style.

EASY DOES IT

It's difficult to anticipate the actions of a child at play, so go easy on the gas when passing school zones or when you see children playing near the street, urges the California State Automobile Association, for that is a situation which calls for precaution as well as caution.

The lowest temperature ever recorded in San Francisco was 27 degrees, on December 11, 1932.

California's population increased 45 per cent between April 1940 and July 1948 — from 6,907,387 to 10,031,000.

SEALNAPED — This month-old baby was sealnaped out of the water at Vancouver, B. C., by the crew of the tanker J. L. Hanna. When they turned "George" loose, out of the kindness of their hearts, he barked to be taken on board again. He was met in San Francisco by pretty Rosamund Wilfley with a bottle of warm milk. Now he'll "serve a stretch" in the Steinhart Aquarium there.

THE WORST SPEED

Centuries before the automobile was invented, Erasmus, the Dutch scholar, observed that "such persons as do make the most haste in the beginning, have commonly the worst speed toward the ending." For your own safety's sake, keep this thought in mind when you drive.

CHILDREN AT PLAY

School days are at hand. Watch out for children going to and from school and keep alert for children at play, urges the California State Automobile Association. Always cooperate with the School Safety Patrols who are on duty near schools to protect classmates from traffic hazards.

County Red Cross Carries On Work In Disaster

A meeting of the San Mateo county Red Cross disaster committee has been called for tonight, September 15, at 8 p.m. in the local chapter house.

R. C. Pitcairn, disaster chairman, and the committee have a carefully worked - out program which will be discussed in detail.

Red Cross responsibility in disaster relief is to assist families and individuals to the extent that their needs are disaster caused and cannot be met by the families themselves.

In San Mateo county the Red Cross is charged by law under provisions of county and municipal ordinances to "furnish food, clothing, shelter, registration and information service and rehabilitation to individuals and families affected by a disaster."

The disaster organization is called into operation when five or more families are plunged into helplessness and suffering by a catastrophe and are in need of food, clothing, shelter, and other basic necessities.

Manslaughter Charge Against Landi Dismissed

Manslaughter charges against Sharp Park golfer Louis Landi, 21, have been dismissed.

Justcie John J. Fahey recently dismissed the charge for lack of evidence.

Landi had been charged with causing the death of Charles E. Goffin, 53, Sharp Park civic leader, in an automobile accident last June.

Rather Than Appear In D.C. Court Four Drop $50 In Bail

Rather than appear in Daly City police court last Thursday, four persons forfeited bail.

Hugh Waters, 168 28th street, San Francisco, dropped $20 bail on a charge of disturbing the peace.

On this same charge, Emanuel Castle, 219A Los Banos avenue, forfeited $10.

Joseph B. Schmidt, address not given, gave up $10 rather than answer charges of drunkenness.

Beverly W. Cook, 513 Pine Terrace, South San Francisco, failed to answer a charge of drunkenness and thereby dropped $10 in bail.

FRESH START — Most of us would look silly if we came to work after a dousing like that administered by two-year-old Bonnie Green to his big brother Russell. Still it's a safe bet that Russell has found something better to beat the 96-degree heat than most folks in Levittown, N. Y.

Ancient coins were minted from electrum, an alloy of gold and silver.

Vets May Sign For State Home Plan October 3rd

Veterans eligible for the benefits of the California Farm and Home Purchasing Plan may apply beginning October 3 for benefits, the department of veterans affairs said today.

Applications may be made in San Francisco on that date and after at 515 Van Ness, or by calling MArket 1-7831.

Under present arrangements the veteran will have to submit plans and specifications, together with a description of his lot before qualifying for the plan.

If plans are approved, the department issues a letter committing itself to purchase of the house when it is completed according to those plans and specifications.

The veteran then arranges his own financing for the period of construction. On satisfactory completion of the building, the veteran submits the home for purchase by the department and subsequent resale to him on a long-term, low interest contract.

Before the construction loan is granted the veteran must place in escrow any amount over the $7,500 maximum state loan that the house is going to cost him.

SATAN'S ARENA—This awesome scene was created in the spring of 1948 at the Atomic Energy Commission's proving ground at Eniwetok Atoll, in the Marshall Islands. This is one of the first pictures released, and emphasizes the statement that "Operation Sandstone" was "of great profit to the Armed Forces." The huge flash is the enlarging fireball from the atom blast, and the oval line marks the spreading shockwave.

U. C. Extension Engineer Classes Hit Record High

The practicing engineer and the nonengineering citizen who could use some practical engineering knowledge will both be able to choose this fall from the largest number of engineering courses ever offered in northern California by University of California Extension.

Presented by the University's Division of Engineering Extension, the courses will be taught by experts from industries in the areas where classes have been scheduled and will cover almost every engineering field — mechanical, civil, electrical, petroleum, ceramic, chemical, general.

They will get under way September 12 through early October and will meet in, Berkeley, Oakland, San Francisco, Stockton, Fresno, and San Jose.

Except where unit credit towards a degree is desired, there are no educational prerequisites for most of the classes and the first meeting of any class may be attended without charge.

Further information, including full descriptions of the courses offered, may be obtained from University Extension, University of California, Berkeley 4.

U. S. Navy Family at Home in Nippon

Two Japanese housegirls are shown serving breakfast to a Navy chief petty officer and his family in Japan. There is no talk about the high cost of living among the more than one hundred Navy families at the Headquarters of the Commander, Fleet Activities, Yokosuka. For twenty-seven dollars a month they occupy from five to seven rooms furnished complete with electric ranges, telephones, refrigerators and houseboys. Features of the Navy community, known as the Griffin Park Housing Area, include schools, a modern department store, a well-stocked commissary and a beauty salon. (Official U.S. Navy Photograph)

WILLING HELPER — This friendly-looking Pandora Chimp, resident at the Philadelphia Zoo, clears the way for a giant bulldozer. The task is one of breaking ground for a new lion house at the zoo. If the chimp's doing more than his share, it's probably because he wants to make sure the lions are kept well within bounds.

Kaiser-Frazer Now Offers 30 Day Trial Period

Take out a Kaiser or Frazer, try it for 30 days, and if it isn't satisfactory you can return it to Impeartrice Brothers, 7031 Mission, and get your money back.

This is the offer being made for the first time in automobile history by Henry J. Kaiser and his Daly City agency, Impeartrice Brothers.

Here's how it works: Come into Impeartrice Brothers and select the new Kaiser or Frazer. Purchase the car in the usual way.

With the purchase, you will receive a written satisfaction guarantee that will permit you to return the car if for any reason you are dissatisfied.

Drive it for 30 days, or 1,000 miles, whichever comes first. If, within the 30-day period, you are not satisfied return the car with your written guarantee and get your money back, minus a small charge for insurance and financing.

Afro Cuban Revue Opens Sunday At Geary Theatre

The famous "Afro Cuban Revue," new musical show direct from Havana, opens a three weeks engagement at the Geary Theatre, San Francisco, Sunday evening, September 18, featuring Canelina, Oscar Lopez, Tondelayo, Isaura, Conchita, Litico, Anita, Delpino, Beba, Kilowat, Mercedita, the Mambo Dancers, Tropicana drummers and "Las Mulatas de Fuego" (fiery mulatas), Havana's most beautiful girls. Jose Urfe directs the company and orchestra of forty.

Mambo, rumba, afro, conga, atomo, nanigo, mula, chango, santo, pato pasqual and other native dances of Cuba are introduced, all magnificently costumed in authentic style. "Maraquero," Mamboana," "Lucumi," "Las Trompetas," Arrimate Carinito," "Una Kiradita" and other new songs are featured, along with "Mama Inez," "Siboney," "Tabu," "El Manisero," "Karabali" and other favorites popular in previous years.

Produced by Brigida Rivalta, the "Afro Cuban Revue" followed "Cabalgata" at the Teatro Marti, Havana, last year. After six months in the Cuban capital, the show played four months at the Follies, Mexico City, and one month each in Panama, Caracas, Trinidad and Jamaica, and then returned to Havana for a repeat engagement. Following the west coast tour, this attraction goes to New York.

HOPE FOR TOMORROW—Marking one of the earliest harvests on record in England, farm workers stack the wheat high in readiness for threshing on the Appleby Farm near Bedford. With good crops, life in England may be less austere.

Social Security For Children

Two plans for safeguarding the security of America's children are included in the U.S. social security act.

Charles H. Shreve, manager of the San Francisco office of the social security administration, said both plans provide a regular cash income when other income is cut off.

One plan is insurance under which a worker earns rights to insurance payments for his family when he dies or retires after reaching age 65.

The other is an assistance plan called aid to dependent children.

Information about these plans and all types of old-age insurance benefits may be obtained from Room 159, Federal Office Building, San Francisco, from 8:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Open-pit and underground mines in Amador county have furnished large quantities of clays.

Bay Area Transit Plans Discussed

Formation of a proposed San Francisco Bay Area rapid transit district, to build or develop district-wide mass transportation, has moved a step forward today.

Members of the senate interim committee on bay area rapid transit, in a San Francisco organization meeting, decided to conduct hearings in all bay counties at which both public and private opinion can be ascertained.

They also agreed to start work at once toward amendment of SB 194, passed at the 1949 legislative session with "crippling amendments" that make the act, according to one Senator, "little more than a piece of paper."

Senator Gerald J. O'Gara of San Francisco was elected committee chairman and Senator Arthur H. Breed Jr. of Oakland is vice-chairman.

Use of gypsum in agriculture provides a source of both suphur and calcium for plants.

Uncle Sam Is No. 1 S. F. Employer

Uncle Sam is the biggest single employer of persons in San Francisco, the San Francisco chamber of commerce said today.

People employed by the government now are in excess of 25,000. City agencies show 20,000 on the payroll. State agencies employ about 5,000.

Among the private industries, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph heads the list. It employs from 9,000 to 10,000. Southern Pacific is next with a payroll of 7,500.

Private enterprise accounts for about 89 per cent of the 474,000 people employed in San Francisco, the report indicated.

WHEEL MISALIGNMENT

Automobile wheel alignment may be affected by the position of the car's springs, says the California State Automobile Association. A heavy load on the rear of the car, such as a trailer or several passengers and baggage, may change the position of the front end sufficiently to cause misalignment.

COLLEGE CABLE — Gals on their way back to school will have good things to say about this comfortable cardigan, ready to give warm protection on snappy fall days. The long-sleeved, V-necked jacket is knit, in cable stitch, with knitted buttons to give it added zip.

The cycle of beef cattle production in the United States is ordinarily about three years.

It has been estimated nature requires from 300 to 1000 years to build an inch of top-soil.

So—in proof of our unlimited confidence in these superb cars, we offer you, on any Kaiser or Frazer you buy, a 30-day trial.

Here's all you do:

1. Come into any of our showrooms and select the new Kaiser or Frazer best suited to the needs and the wants of your family.
2. Purchase this car in any of the usual ways; all cash, on installment payments, with or without trade-in of your present car. With the purchase, you will receive a written Satisfaction Guarantee that will permit you to return the car if for any reason you are dissatisfied.
3. Drive it for 30 days or 1000 miles, whichever comes first. We are confident it will give you more genuine pleasure than any car you have ever owned.
4. If, within the 30-day period, you are not satisfied, for any reason whatever, return the car with your written Satisfaction Guarantee and get your money back, minus a small charge for insurance and financing.

DALY CITY—COLMA

With attention turned toward their bazaar Saturday, the Lions Club had a business luncheon Wednesday.

Final plans were drawn up for the big event which will run all day Saturday, September 17, at the Sprouse-Reitz store, 6400 Mission.

A parade to march through Daly City, beginning at 12:30 p.m., was also approved by the group. The route of the parade will generally follow Mission street.

Lions stressed the fact that while the bazaar is planned to entertain, its greater purpose is to solicit funds for needy boys and girls. To this end, nationally advertised items from soap to automobile accessories will be on sale at the store. All money from these sales will go to the Lions children's fund.

In addition to the three pretty models, two of whom will sell candy kisses from a bathtub, there also will be a variety of acts at the bazaar. These range from a Chinese to a Greek show.

Further information on the bazaar may be obtained by reading Page 1 of the "Record."

METEOR CRATER

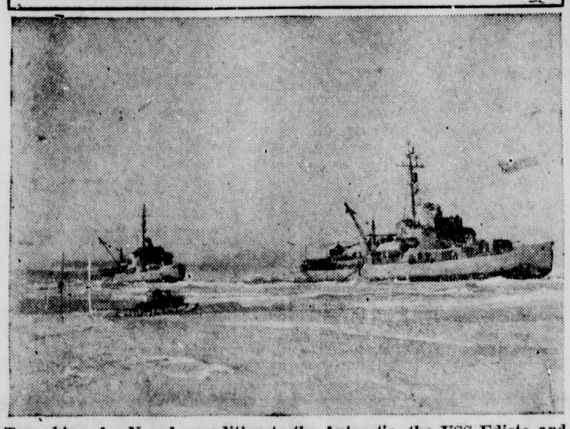
Meteor Crater, located just west of Winslow in Arizona and created by a meteorite that crashed into the earth, is reported by the National Automobile Club to be large enough to afford playing space to twenty football games all at one time with seating space on its sloping sides for more than 2,000,000 spectators.

MEDITERRANEAN TOURIST—Uncle Sam's aircraft carrier USS Philippine Sea gracefully slips out of Grand Harbor, Malta, during a recent goodwill tour of the European ports along the Mediterranean. Such periodic tours are designed to establish closer relations with U. S. friends overseas.

FOR ADEQUATE LIGHT

A headlight bulb does not have to burn out entirely before its effectiveness is destroyed. Many motorists, points out the National Automobile Club, are under the impression that so long as a bulb will burn it will burn well. But usage dims them and replacement from time to time is one way of assuring an adequate amount of light. And check that stoplight now and then. If the ammeter hand flickers when the pedal is jabbed, the light is working.

Task Force Moors to Polar Ice



Two ships of a Naval expedition to the Antarctic, the USS Edisto and the USS Burton Island, tie up to bay ice in the course of exploration work in the South Polar regions. The above photo was taken in the Bay of Whales. Sled and skis used in surface exploration are in the left foreground. The Navy's role in carrying the flag of the United States to the ends of the earth is exemplified in its frequent sallies into the south and north polar fastnesses. (Official U.S. Navy Photograph)

Cherolis Nursery Stages Big Open House Saturday

Opening Saturday in Daly City will be the modern Cherolis Nursery, 1851 Junipero Serra boulevard.

No, this is no place to send your children, except after plants and garden and lawn materials. But better still, the Cherolis brothers hope you will come to the nursery.

For those who look around on the first day there will be gardenias for the ladies and bulbs for the men.

And for the customers, the ones with money in their pockets, Cherolis offers a specialty in some of the best, if not the best, begonias in California. Not only is the nursery equipped to handle these blooms, but also has the proper kind of tools to enable you to dig around your own begonias.

But maybe you hate begonias. In that case, Cherolis also has a variety of flowers and seeds from pansies to cabbage. Needless to say there is also an assortment of hoses, lawn mowers, grass catchers and other back to nature material.

Although three brothers are running the new nursery, only Joe Cherolis will be around during the week. On week ends his two other brothers, Nicholas and Anthony, will help out. No, the two other boys aren't drawing unemployment, they're gainfully employed at other jobs.

All of the Cherolis brothers have had considerable experience in gardening and nursery work.

So don't feel bashful about coming in and just looking around. Joe likes company and says he will be glad to talk over your gardening problems regardless of whether you buy a begonia or nothing at all.

Remember the address: 1851 Junipero Serra boulevard. It's a modern-looking affair, set back from the street. Come in Saturday and get acquainted, and also pick up a free gardenia and a few bulbs.

October 2 to 8 Is Handicap Week

Dates for this year's National Employ the Physical Handicapped Week are October 2 through 8th, the veterans administration announced today.

The value of hiring physically-handicapped persons for suitable jobs is the theme of the week.

Local committees, including veterans' organization leaders and veteran counselors, will spearhead the campaign.

Names of Daly City men and groups in this campaign will be announced at a later date.

On a state level, Governor Earl Warren's permanent three-man committee for employment of the handicapped is again preparing campaign ideas for the use of local groups.

THE PROUD SHALL PAY

Don't be a show-off when it comes to getting away first at the traffic light, advises the National Automobile Club. Constantly fast acceleration in city driving can make as much as twenty to twenty-five per cent difference in the gasoline that the modern high-powered "quick" automobile uses. This is a little item that is rarely considered by the driver whose vanity is such that he cannot possibly play second role to any other driver on the street.

Last year the average American consumed a half pound of tea.

EARLY BIRD—When a fishing stream was opened exclusively for youngsters under 16 at Las Vegas, Nev., 14-year-old Barbara Proffitt was first on the scene. For all her efforts, nobody will say Barbara didn't deserve making the fine catch above. The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service stocked the stream especially for the kids, who don't even need a license.
